Hot Sun Causes Explosion.

Special Dispatch to The Star.
KINGWOOD, Va., June 1.—Kingwood was alarmed by the blowing up of a section of sidewalk near the National Bank and close to the residence of C. T. Menard. It had been put down in cold weather and did not get thoroughly set. It is thought there was a pocket where gas formed and the hot sun shining down on it caused an explosion that shook nearby houses and pulverized the walk for about eight feet one way and three feet the other.

AMERICANISTS END MEETING.

Delegates to International Congress Will Leave London.
LONDON, June 1.—The eighteenth International Congress of Americanists, whose purpose is to study the history and science of the two Americas, was concluded today after a successful week. The delegates, who represent many governments, learned societies and universities of the western world, Monday, visited Oxford University, where a degree will be conferred upon Dr. F. Boas, professor of anthropology at Columbia University.

GIRLS KILLED BY ELEVATOR.

Two Young Women Crushed Against Shaft in Factory.
FAIRMONT, Va., June 1.—Nellie Seylitt and Eleanor Crowe, young women employees of a glass factory here, were killed today soon after noon when the elevator on which they were riding accidentally started and they were crushed against the shaft.
Miss Seylitt is the fifth member of her family to meet a violent death in four years.

Removal Sale

I wish to thank the public for its patronage since this sale opened yesterday morning. It has been an unequalled success—and it is no wonder. It has had the ring of truth throughout every statement; and, better yet, the goods themselves and the prices, too, were not exaggerated when it came to the test of buying—and that test counted with the public. Don't forget this sale will continue daily until everything is sold.

NEW PRESIDENT TO BE ELECTED

Reports Read Showing Progress of the Institution Under Retiring Official's Administration.
The resignation of Dr. W. P. Thirkield as president of Howard University, made necessary by his elevation to the episcopacy of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, was presented and accepted by the board of trustees, which assembled yesterday in the Carnegie Library at the university.
Great regret over the loss of Dr. Thirkield as directing head of the institution and hearty congratulation upon the wider field of activity and influence that his selection as bishop opens to him were expressed in resolutions adopted, which also recited the benefits which have accrued to Howard University under his administration.

INAUGURAL CHANGE GETS A SETBACK

less than a middle if the amendment should be adopted and ratified, Mr. Henry's defense of his proposition to abolish the short term of Congress was that "more vigorous legislation is passed in the short term than at any other time."
Opposes Short Session.
"The sensible thing to do," he said, "would be to eliminate the short session. Haven't we seen things put through without proper consideration at midnight sessions in the short term that never would have passed under ordinary circumstances?"
The fourth of March does not suit, the second Tuesday of January does not suit, let us place it where our forefathers intended to have it.
"We remember President Taft's inauguration, the bitterest, coldest day Washington ever saw, perhaps. There was a terrible snowstorm, and thousands of people were here from the south, the west, the east and the north to witness the inaugural spectacle. You all remember that day with its ordeal for the men in the United States, who were in the line of death and destruction to them."
"I have heard constitutional lawyers say they did not care how many men were killed, they couldn't change the date. God pity such a man!" The experience of a hundred years has demonstrated that March 4 is a failure and was not intended for inauguration.
Mr. Henry spoke of the proposed income tax and the proposed direct election of senators, saying that both of these constitutional changes, together with his own proposed change of date, would be written into the Constitution in a few months.

Proper Time to Act.

"And now is the time to act," he added, "or later a few people may sneak into power here and thwart the will of the people."
Representative Cullip of Indiana asked why Mr. Henry had not added a line to his resolution providing for the direct election by the people of President and Vice President. Mr. Henry replied that when it came to adding other changes there were endless opportunities.
Mr. Henry spoke to the House lauded and he wanted to have the terms of representatives placed at three years—another man said it was absurd and suggested four years.
"Make it for life," suggested Representative Mann of New York, who laughed.
Several members asked for recognition at the same time, it seemed, and Representative Clifton of Arkansas, Representative Floyd, a democrat, then the first filibuster started. Mr. Mann immediately objected to Mr. Floyd.

Point of No Quorum.

"Don't you intend to recognize the republican side?" he asked, and joining his point, moved for adjournment. This was lost. Then a point of no quorum was raised and the long and tiresome process known as "a call of the House" was started, the entire loss of time from debate being about 100 minutes. The House was called again, but the quorum was not reached. The House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Kaiser Loses His Suit.

Action Against Tenant Defeated in All Courts of Germany.
BERLIN, June 1.—The Kaiser's suit against a tenant on his estate at Cudlitz has now been defeated in all the courts of Germany. The tenant, who was a member of the House of Commons, had been sued by the Kaiser for the amount of 100,000 marks. The tenant had been sued by the Kaiser for the amount of 100,000 marks. The tenant had been sued by the Kaiser for the amount of 100,000 marks.

Will Serve Until June 28.

President Thirkield presented his resignation to take effect on or before June 10. At the unanimous and earnest solicitation of the board, he consented to serve in the larger interests of the university until June 28. The resignation of Dr. Thirkield as president of Howard University, made necessary by his elevation to the episcopacy of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States, was presented and accepted by the board of trustees, which assembled yesterday in the Carnegie Library at the university.

GIVE ELECTRICAL FEAST.

Members of V. A. W. Society, Bliss School, Hold Annual Banquet.

Members of the V. A. W. Society of the Bliss Electrical School held their annual banquet last night at Freund's Hall, Dr. L. D. Bliss, president of the school, and other members of the faculty being present as guests of honor.
The menu, written for the special understanding of those who know the meaning of electrical terminology, contained such items as "chemically pure" or "to-mato." The fish course, headed "light load," consisted of broiled cod, trout, self-starting sauce with dill sauce, anchovy potatoes. The "half load" was "insulated crab flakes, ten beef tenderloin with mushroom reftier, and asparagus shaft lubricated with butter." "Full load" was non-reversing chicken salad, vacuumed olives, ammeter caviar, wattmeter pickles, while the "overload" consisted of 90-per-cent power factory cakes, ice cream with ice zero temperature coed, electroplated coffee and dry battery rolls.
